WHAT KIND OF MAN IS THIS?

"He stilled the storm to a whisper,
all the waves of the sea were hushed"

PSALM 106

"WHO CAN THIS BE?"

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

Even the wind and sea obey Him

During this season of Ordinary Time, we begin to reflect on who Jesus is to us. This week we journey with the Disciples as they too, wonder who is this person? These were competent, experienced fishermen, and this storm was like no other. They were terrified. And what is Jesus doing? Sleeping! We can all surely place ourselves in the position of the Disciples. How many times in our lives have we experienced a storm, and thought that the Lord was asleep, not concerned, simply ignoring our desperate pleas for help? The Gospel today lets us know that our Lord, Jesus, is always aware of the storms we face. We might not understand why he reacts and responds in the way he does, but this week he invites us to step out in faith and trust him regardless. We must not be afraid, our God can calm the wind and the sea!
